4.) Judging

Judging will start on Saturday at 07.00am by EE judges using the European standard.

Exhibitors have access to the hall during judging, although they have to steer clear of the judging tables.

All exhibits will be stewarded by official stewards only; longhair exhibitors are allowed to prepare their own exhibits for the judge, but the animals will be taken to the table by the official stewards.

5.) Awards

5.a) The European Association (EE) will donate one European medal in each Breedspecific European show.

5.b) The minimum requirement for winning a European Champion title is that there are at least 12 cavies entered from 2 countries.

5.c) The following awards will be available:

„Best Male and Best Female“ of the smooth coated, rough coated and long coated breeds. These will also secure the European Champion title.

5.d) Further European Champions will be awarded in individual breeds, sexes and/or colours if the requisites as under 5.b are met.

5.e) The show organisers will further donate a „Breeders Special“ prize in each Breedspecific show; this special will be won by the exhibitor that has shown the best four exhibits.

All European Champions will receive a Certificate as well as a Gold rosette.

Minimum points' total for the European Champion title = 94 points.

5.f) Each judge has further specials to award.

5.g) The title „Juvenile European-Champion“ is awarded when a minimum of 10 exhibits from juvenile exhibitors have been entered from at least two countries. The Best of Breed (irrelative of its sex) will win a Certificate and a Gold rosette.

If there are at least 10 exhibits in one breed, colour and/or sex, the Best Male exhibit as well as the Best Female will be awarded the „Juvenile European-Champion“ title and win a Certificate and a Gold rosette.

The exhibit placed second and third may be awarded a Silver or Bronze rosette respectively.

Minimum points' total for the Juvenile European Champion title = 94 points.

5.h) Every exhibitor will receive an exhibitor's souvenir.

5.i) The awards ceremony will take place during the Social evening after 7pm on the Saturday evening.

No specials will be sent out by post.

6.) Selling of Exhibits

The selling of exhibits is free and entirely orchestrated by the exhibitor; however, such exhibits cannot be lifted until Sunday afternoon between 2pm and 4pm.

7.) For Sale section

The Cavia-Verein will run a For Sale section for cavies that are not in the show and not judged.

Only exhibitors in the main show are allowed to enter sale stock in the For Sale section. All sale stock must be at least 300 gr. in weight and in obvious good health.

Sale stock has to be entered on the official entry form also by 1. April 2011 (pen reservation). Each pen may house 1 adult cavy or 2-3 same sex youngsters.

There will be a fee of € 2.00 /Fr. 3.—per cavy that is put in the For Sale section. The For Sale fees have to be paid at the same time as the entry fees. There will be no refund for absent For Sale cavies.

The buyer will pay € 2.00 /Fr. 3.—provision to the show organisers for each cavy bought.

For Sale cards will be available from the show organisers and can be filled in by the seller at the start of the show.

The purchaser can take the bought cavy instantly after a cash sale.

The sale price will be paid out to the seller immediately.

8.) General Rules

Exhibits can only be taken out of the pen after permission has been obtained from the show organisers. It is forbidden to attach any personal objects or advertising to the show pens.

9.) Liability

In the event that the show has to be cancelled by e.g. fire, high winds, criminal damage, order of the veterinary police or strike action, no claims for damages can be made.

10.) Social Evening and Awards Presentation

Banquet – Entertainment

Price inclusive of evening meal, but excluding drinks is € 25.00 / Fr. 38.— per head.

We extend a cordial welcome to all exhibitors; please pay all costs with the entry fees.

11.) Official Opening and Ice breaker

The official opening will take place on Saturday, 14. May 2011 at 17.00hrs. in the events centre to which all honorary guests, exhibitors and show organisers are invited.
